

new starters

Net Balance has recruited four new members of staff in the first quarter of 2008.

Natasha Hildebrand-Lockie joined the Net Balance team in January. Natasha holds a Bachelors degree in Chemical Engineering and a Bachelors degree in Arts (English) from the University of Melbourne. She has gained work experience at Carlton & United Beverages, in community consultation for City West Water and in working for the engineering consulting company WorleyParsons. Natasha is currently completing her Masters of Environment degree at the University of Melbourne. Natasha can be contacted at natasha@netbalancemanagement.com.

Vicky McAllister joined Net Balance in February. Vicky has five years experience in the sustainability and CSR fields. She started her career at UK based consultancy "csrnetwork", participating in a number of assurance, benchmarking and stakeholder engagement projects with clients such as E.ON UK, BP, Vodafone, Shell and GSK. Prior to starting at Net Balance, she was the Social and Environmental Project Manager for the Association of Chartered, Certified Accountants (ACCA) in London. Vicky can be contacted at vicky@netbalancemanagement.com.

Ro Coroneos joined Net Balance in February and heads up the Sydney Office. Ro's career path over the past 20 years has traversed a range of disciplines across private and public sectors, from real estate valuation and business consulting, energy and water utilities, to climate change regulation, policy and sustainability. Ro's main career highlight however, was helping to establish the legal framework for the NSW Greenhouse Gas Abatement Scheme, which in 2003, was the world's first mandatory greenhouse gas emissions trading scheme. She is also Vice President of the Australian Corporate Lawyers Association (NSW), and co-founder of Responsible Business Forum, a Sydney-based professional sustainability discussion group. Ro can be contacted at ro@netbalancemanagement.com.

Alan Dayeh also joined Net Balance in February and works from the Sydney office. Alan has over twelve years experience in the financial services and advisory services sector with core experience in performance measurement and management reporting, operational risk frameworks and strategic improvement initiatives. Prior to Net Balance, he worked in KPMG's Risk Advisory Services practice for seven years and prior to that three years with PricewaterhouseCoopers and three years with Westpac Banking Corporation. Alan can be contacted at alan@netbalancemanagement.com.
