

Experienced Greenhouse/Climate Change Professional – Sydney Office

- Experienced Climate Change professional required
- Sydney CBD Location
- Work with top tier corporate clients on Climate Change and other environmental issues

Join one of Australia's largest dedicated teams of sustainability consultants and become responsible for advising many of the nation's sustainability leaders.

Net Balance is growing their Sydney office and is looking for experienced greenhouse and climate change professionals to assist existing and new clients to meet regulatory requirements and the challenges of operating in a carbon constrained economy.

Do you have experience in any or all of the following?

- Greenhouse gas footprint assessment, analysis and verification.
- Economic modelling of carbon pass through and trading scenarios.
- Climate Change mitigation, risk, and adaptation advisory.
- Greenhouse Friendly and life cycle analysis.
- Ecological footprinting and ecosystem services analysis.
- Strong background in spreadsheet modelling and/or database design.
- Big 4 accounting firm or large consultancy background.
- Over 3 years in a climate change related role.

The ideal candidate will have current exposure to a range of the above areas and will be able to start delivering from day one. The following demonstrated skills are desired:

- Genuine interest in and passion for sustainability.
- Ability to prepare project proposals (costing and writing)
- Experience in liaising with clients and maintaining relationships.
- Ability to plan and manage climate change and greenhouse projects.
- Ability to manage a team of consultants to effectively deliver quality outputs.
- Ability to work with multiple clients and projects against time and cost constraints.
- Strong analytical capability and practical greenhouse quantitative experience.
- Practical NGERs experience and climate change related legislative requirements.
- Understanding of industrial and mechanical processes in relation to greenhouse gases.

This is the opportunity to work collaboratively on unique projects, contribute to the growth of the Sydney office and be rewarded for what you do in a fair and transparent way.

If you believe you are the right person for this role then we'd like to hear from you.
